SUNDAY NIGHT'S TELEGRAMS.

Peter Jeannette, the father of the infant who was abused by James Curran, in Madison county, Michigan, entered the jail and shot his wife and the child. Curran still lives and the people threaten to break into the jail and finish him. The little girl died this morning.

There were six cholera cases in St.
Louis last week.
The anti monopolists continue to gain in California. The prospect of Gov. Booth's election to the United States Senate is flattering. He will have 15 votes at the commencement of the legislative joint ballot. It will require 41 to elect him.

Fullerton won in three heats, in 2:28, 2:25 and 2:24, the trot for $3,500.
Sensation came in second. Ben Flann-gan beat him in a match for $2,000.
Phelps Nelson & Co's. Salamander Fire Works in Albany, N. Y., were destroyed by the Sunday night.
The loss is $500.

It is estimated that during the recent storm on the coast of Newfoundland 30 vessels with all hands were lost in North Bay alone. Of this number the names of the American vessels have been ascertained.
They are the G. Starr, Charles C.
Dunn and the E. Rick. The loss of property on the shore is immense.
The fishermen sustained heavy losses and it is feared they will have a hard time. On the Nova Scotia side the damage by the gale was equally severe—numerous houses have been washed ashore. Rivers, Bourgeois and others were lost from the coast. Of the fleet of 18 fishing vessels, cleared in that village 7 were dismantled and 6 damaged, two lost with all hands.
Seventy thousand dollars will not repay the loss in this parish. The schooner Bonnie Jean, lost in North Bay, had a crew of ten young men who were the only supports of wild-oared mothers or aged parents. All along the coast wrecks and abandoned vessels are reported. On the shore, fences, barns and dwellings were destroyed by the gale.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Confession of Arson—A Fall From the Roof of a Store—The Spanish Correspondent of the Sporting Times.
New York, Sept. 8.—Morris Pepl, who was arrested in Trenton for setting fire to the Fashion Street Farm Stables, has made a full confession.
John McConnell, aged 15, while asleep on the roof of the sixth story building, No. 9, Mulberry Street, rolled off to the side walk and was almost instantly killed.

The Spanish Correspondent writes to the Sporting Times, that some days ago the Carlists did not dare attack the Republicans, and contented themselves by capturing trains, stopping mails, etc., while now the Republicans dare not attack the Carlists, but seem satisfied with petty operations in the rear of Don Carlos' forces. Carlos will not enter Cataluña until he has three or four Castilian battalions and plenty of fire arms.

Yellow Fever Panic in Texas.

AUSTIN, Sept. 8.—Conflicting reports came in regarding the prevalence of the Yellow fever at Galveston, Houston and Shreveport.

It is rumored that the Central International and the Great Northern and Texas and Pacific railroads have been blockaded. It is impossible to ascertain anything of reliable character, and perfect panic prevails in Galveston and Houston, and northward bound trains to-day and last night were crowded with people flying from both places.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Internal Revenue Matters.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 8.—The following special order was issued from the Internal Revenue Bureau to-day:
"Collectors are instructed to see that each Deputy Collector in charge of a division is furnished with a book containing a record made up from the office alphabetized list of the names of all persons in his division who have paid special taxes for this fiscal year, including those who paid such taxes to the Collector or to any of his deputies, and each deputy should be required to keep a record in his book so complete that it can be depended upon as a guide in determining what persons in his division have paid such taxes. Requisitions for books of alphabetical list of special tax-payers should only include a sufficient number to supply the home office and such deputies as are in charge of a division." The Commissioner of Internal Revenue decides that regular liquor or tobacco dealers holding special tax stamps as such may close their ordinary place of business for the time being, and, on registry of the facts with the collector of the district, may do business under said stamp at one stand in the fair grounds situated in said district without payment of additional tax, but before opening again their regular place of business should make a new register with the Collector of the district.

The Railroad Robbers—They are Planning a Bank Robbery—Gov.
Woodson Has His Back Up.
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 8.—A special dispatch from St. Louis says that the Jowa Railroad train robbers, who have been committing a series of the-fights in the Western counties of this State, are, altogether again, except McCoy, and that the detectives have information that another bank robbery is being planned by them to be carried out as soon as McCoy joins the gang. All banks in that part of the State are being closely watched by special officers, and efforts are constantly being made to capture these desperadoes.
The Republican has a special from Jefferson City saying that this gang is now in Clay county and are threatening to burn out certain parties who have been active in their efforts to arrest them. Governor Woodson is reported to have declared that if the local authorities and citizens do not exhibit a stronger disposition to arrest these outlaws, he will send an armed force after them.

A singing class has been organized in the congregation of the First Epistalian Church of this city. The class is under the instruction of Professor Meyerhoff and the regular choir of the Church. It numbers over forty members, and meeting at the Church every Sunday.

The Board of County Commissioners were in session yesterday attending to educational matters. Nothing of importance was done owing to a lack of reports from township committees. Delinquent committees were notified to send in their reports of number of school children in their several townships.

Our commission merchants are clearing the deck for the cotton trade, and there is every prospect that this trade will increase as rapidly this fall as it did last. The Raleigh cotton market is rapidly becoming one of no slight magnitude, and cotton is now shipped to Raleigh from distant points in the State, the prices here averaging better than those paid in many of the larger markets North.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Yesterday morning as our esteemed fellow-citizen W. F. Askew, Esq., was passing by the store of M. A. Parker & Co., Exchange Place, a blind from the third story window fell and just grazed the head of the above mentioned gentleman. The escape was a narrow one, for the end of the blind had struck the head of a fractured skull which was being held up.

FIRST BALE OF NEW COTTON.—The first bale of new cotton sold in this market arrived yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from Franklin county, and was purchased by Messrs. Williamson, Upchurch & Thomas at 19 cents.
It weighed 174 pounds and is of good quality. It was grown by Nathan May, Esq., and produced 34 pounds per 100 pounds of seed. Mr. May used the Vegetator fertilizer.

L. O. F. S. W. Chamberlain, D. D. G. M., assisted by members of Trenton Lodge, No. 22, and Enterprise No. 44, instituted a new Lodge of Odd Fellows, at LaGrange, Lenoir county, on the evening of the 4th of September. The following officers were installed, viz:
A. J. McIntyre, N. G.
J. P. Harger, V. G.
H. E. Dillon, Sec'y.
J. M. Hadley, Treas.

The next Lodge is the 5th instituted since the adjournment of the Grand Lodge in May last, and starts with nine members. We are informed that there are several other new Lodges in process of organization in their portions of the State.

LOCAL MATTER.

Official Lawlessness.

The case reported in our local columns Sunday morning, in regard to the unlawful arrest of a young lady by a negro policeman, calls loudly for investigation.
We gave the statements from the victim herself, who was corroborated throughout by those of Capt. J.
P. Adams and his wife. Until it is settled, we shall believe.
His Honor, Mayor Whitaker, says, as we understand, that the policeman acted without any official authority or order from him. When the negro woman came to the Mayor's office and claimed that she wanted her daughter who he refused to accompany her, but he denies that he refused the policeman, as an officer, to arrest the young girl.
It is evident that somebody has done wrong, and the conduct of the policeman in going to Capt. Adams' house and demanding, and carrying off the young lady, is totally indefensible and in violation of the law. He had no warrant for her arrest, and therefore he transgressed his powers in forcing her to accompany him to Jennie Davis'.
The young lady's statements, which we published in full, upon investigation, turn out to be true, as we believe they are; and if so, GREAT wrong has been committed, which should be sifted and the responsibility looking where it ought to rest. We believe her statements are true or false, and that is for the investigation to determine, the negro policeman's conduct is unlawful, arbitrary and utterly unjustifiable. Who is safe in the community if such official lawlessness is not rebuked and punished? If it turns out after all that Miss Powell is the daughter of the degraded woman, who has shown a disposition to sell her own offspring for the basest purposes, and we have no hesitation in saying that the foul crime should not be allowed, if there is any law to prevent it.
Miss Powell denies, in the most indignant manner, that she knows the woman who alleges she is her mother, and she has heard of her and her statement is entitled to be believed until it is falsified.
It concerns every individual in the community to see that the innocent are protected and the law vindicated.
We believe the law has been completely violated. We think the conduct of the negro policeman is disgraceful and infamous, and we demand, in behalf of the public, that he be punished and dismissed from office.

CONSECRATION OF ASSISTANT BISHOP LYMAN.—From the State Agricultural Journal of the 6th inst.

In the year of his age.
"We are gratified to learn that the consecration of Rev. Theodore B.
Lyman, D. D., Assistant Bishop-elect of the Diocese of North Carolina, will take place in this city in the latter part of November. The Churchman states that the consecrating Bishop will be the Right Rev. Thos.
Atkinson, D. D., L. D., the venerable Bishop of this Diocese, and one of the oldest of the roll of American Bishops, having been consecrated over twenty years ago. It is understood that Dr. Lyman is very glad to have the consecrating service take place among the people whom he comes to serve, and in the city which will probably be chosen as his place of residence, at such times as his arduous duties will allow him the repose of home.

Bishop Atkinson was clearly in stronger health and more active vigor at the late Diocese Convention in Raleigh than he has been for some time. In parting from Dr. Lyman, the growth of the Church in this State, and the very widely scattered parishes over its immense territorial jurisdiction, have for some time precluded the possibility even of a single visit to each parish in the course of a year, and the election of the Assistant Bishop was demanded by the urgent necessities of the Church. We observe the unfeigned regret of the people of San Francisco in parting from Dr. Lyman, who has endeared himself to them by his deep interest in the active work of the Church, and the extension of her educational and ecclesiastical interests. His election was unanimously approved by the synod, and we are sure that he is appointed to labor, and we are sure that his coming will be good for his Church and for North Carolina."

THE LATE HON. D. M. BARRIN-GER.—The following is clipped from the Baltimore Gazette of the 6th instant:
"The remains of Hon. D. M. Barringer, of North Carolina, who died on Monday at the White Sulphur Springs, Greenbrier county, West Virginia, arrived in Baltimore at 9:20
p. m. on Wednesday, via Lynchburg, Va., in care of Adams Express Company. The remains, which were in a reticulate coffin, enclosed in a pine box, were placed in the warehouse of the Company, on Ohio avenue, from whence they were removed to the establishment of Messrs. Henry W. Jenkins & Son, Light street, yesterday morning. General Rufus Lardner, of Charlotte, N. C., brother of the deceased, and Levern W. Barringer, of Raleigh, N. C., sons of deceased, accompanied the body to this city. At 9 o'clock this morning the remains will be taken from the warehouses of Jenkins & Son to Greenwood Cemetery, and at 10 o'clock carriages containing the relatives and friends of deceased will leave the Mount Vernon Hotel for the funeral place, where the funeral services will be held in the chapel of that beautiful city of the dead."

MOSCITORS.—As these disagreeable insects are very troublesome about the city, we hereby publish the following for an exchange for the benefit of suffering humanity:
"Apply good verberna water to the skin, and you may rest and sleep in the midst of thousands with impunity.
It will not drive them away, but they will not bite as long as a faint trace of the perfume remains.
Below you will find a receipt for a superior article. Any druggist can put it up and the expense is trifling: Essence of verbena (Tridion), one drachm; cologne spirit (not cologne water), ninety-five per cent. one pint; mix and agitate for twenty-four hours, then add distilled water, four ounces, and filter. Bath the face, neck and hands well, and mosquitoes will not trouble you."

SUBSTANTIALLY.—Bally carriages, hoop skirts, luge beer and fancy suits are all very nice in their line.
The goods are all new (N. Y.) batter, hands cured in hot salt, par-four and such things as Messrs.
Baker, Vail & Clark, No. 174 Read street, New York, have just donated to our State Agricultural Society. It really seems that our citizens are distance have fully appreciated our impoverished condition and are responding with an unexpected liberality.
Let Messrs. Baker, Vail & Clark be remembered by all who wish to deal with a fair, square, first-class house.

A NEW FIRM.—Messrs. G. T.
Stronach, W. C. Stronach and A. B.
Stronach have formed a partnership as Cotton Brokers and Commission Merchants. All of these gentlemen are qualified in the line of business of large experience, and possess business qualifications of the first order.
Their references are among the best in the city, and we have no doubt they will secure their fair share of patronage.
It is useless to speak of these gentlemen personally, as they have been long and favorably known in this community. We wish the new firm a long life and large success.

FIRST NEW COTTON FROM WAKE.— Yesterday morning four bales of new cotton arrived from the plantation of Jeff Fisher, Esq., of this county.
They were purchased by the Messrs.
Stronach Bros., for 18 cents per pound. The cotton is of as good a quality as we have ever seen produced in this county. Our merchants now have their coats off and sleeves rolled up ready to wade into business.

A large number of goodly-disposed persons were disappointed in the suicide of Ritchison at Xenia, Ohio, at midnight on Saturday last. He was condemned for the murder of Fogwell, to be hanged in October, but carried out his determination not to be hanged in public by committing suicide in his cell. He was found dead at 6 a. m., on Sunday, having made his "last morning rose with summer" on the 31st of August, hanging with his back to the wall, his hands ironed and his feet aloft; yet with a sheet twisted into a rope around his neck. He had doubled himself up, and must have died of strangulation. The odious spectacle of a public execution will be denied by this movement of Ritchison.

CONSECRATION OF ASSISTANT BISHOP LYMAN.—From the State Agricultural Journal of the 6th inst.

In the year of his age.
"We are gratified to learn that the
consecration of Rev. Theodore B.
Lyman, D. D., Assistant Bishop-
elect of the Diocese of North Caro-
latter part of November. The *Church-
Bishop will be the Right Rev. Thos.
Atkinson, D. D., L. D., the venerable
pose of home.

at the late Diocese Convention in Raleigh than he has been for some time. In parting from Dr. Lyman,
the growth of the Church in this State,
diction, have for some time pre-
of the Church. We observe the un-
clesiastical interests. His election was
unanimously approved by the synod,

the Baltimore Gazette of the 6th instant:
"The remains of Hon. D. M. Bar-
on Monday at the White Sulphur
Virginia, arrived in Baltimore at 9:20
p. m. on Wednesday, via Lynchburg, Va., in care of Adams Express Company. The remains, which were in a
whence they were removed to the es-
kins & Son, Light street, yesterday
morning. General Rufus Lardner,
of Charlotte, N. C., brother of the deceased, and Levern W. Barringer, of
be taken from the warehouses of Jen-
